Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Mass: The Mass readings and prayers for the Twenty- Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time are on page 132 of the Mass Book.

Mission Appeal – The Spiritans (Congregation of the Holy Spirit)

Today we welcome Fr. Emmanuel Osei-Akoto, a Ghanaian priest, who will celebrate this weekend's Masses and make an appeal on behalf of his congregation, the Spiritans, also known as the Congregation of the Holy Spirit.

The Spiritans are a Religious Congregation founded in 1703 who today, 300 years on, carry out their mission of evangelisation in more than 60 countries throughout the world. The Spiritans are dedicated to the Holy Spirit, the author of all holiness and "source of the apostolic spirit". They place themselves under the protection of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, who was filled beyond measure by the same Spirit "with the fullness of holiness and apostolic zeal". In keeping with their ideal of a life that is both fraternal and apostolic, Spiritans take for their motto the words used to describe the early Christian communities: "One heart and one soul" (Acts 4:32).

Please be generous in supporting Fr. Emmanuel and the work of his congregation today.

Weekday Masses

Fr. Emmanuel will say Mass on Monday morning at 10am before he leaves.

Fr. David Prichard will celebrate Mass on Wednesday at Gabalfa and on Saturday morning at St. Teilo's.

Fr. Prichard will also hear confessions on Saturday. Times of Masses in nearby churches on the other days of the week are shown below:

Refreshments after the 11am Mass - Refreshments will be served in the Hall after the 11 o'clock Mass next Sunday, September 23rd. All are welcome.

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage & Congress – Liverpool 2018

Have you ever walked behind the Blessed Sacrament with 10,000 other Catholics? Have you ever been in a large Arena, normally used for pop stars, when the room falls silent because Jesus is here in our midst? If you can answer 'yes' to those two questions, then you were lucky enough to be at the wonderful Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Congress in Liverpool last weekend. If your answer is 'no', then it is well worth looking at the videos from the event which can be found here - <https://www.shalomworldtv.org/adoremus>. If you do not have time to watch the videos, why not listen to some of the key sessions, here - <https://soundcloud.com/catholicchurch>. As one of the Parish delegates, now home after the weekend, I have so many rich memories. But perhaps the most special one is the response of a passer-by who saw us, Catholic people, walking the streets of Liverpool with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at our head, singing hymns like Sweet Sacrament Divine and Soul of my Saviour. He (someone known as @dwill89dw) said on Twitter: "Even as an atheist (soz) I enjoyed bumping into this mob today. The hymns gave the town a kind of calming feel." Taking Jesus into the streets with us and touching even one heart, is for me evidence of the renewal of faith experienced by us all, as we come closer and closer to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Mass Intentions

Canon will be saying Mass privately during his recuperation and will be offering Masses for the following intentions:

Monday, September 17th – Catherine Lovell (JL)

Tuesday, September 18th – Private Intention

Wednesday, September 19th – Holy Souls

Thursday, September 20th – Intentions of David Jones

Friday, September 21st – Keith Walker (NW)

Saturday, September 22nd – For all the sick

Memorial Candle

No one has requested that the memorial candle be lit for his/her intention this week. If you would like the memorial candle to be lit for your deceased family members, please place a £5 donation in an envelope and put the name of the intention on the envelope. If you would like the candle for a specific date, please indicate this on the envelope.

Parish Advisory Council

The Parish Advisory Council meets this Thursday, September 20th at 7pm. If you would like any issues discussed, please contact a member of the group.

Parish Rosary Prayer Group

The Parish Rosary Prayer Group meets on the last Thursday of each month at 2pm in Ty Mair, 19 Heol y Waun CF14 1LB at the junction of Heol Gabriel and College Road, to pray and discuss the Rosary and have a cuppa! The next meeting is this Thursday, September 27th. All are welcome to come along and join in the prayer and fellowship. For further details contact Christine Searle 07771161259. Prayer intentions are always welcomed.

Please contact the Presbytery if you are aware of any sick or housebound parishioners who would like to receive Communion at home.

CAFOD School Volunteer Taster Session—CAFOD is running a taster session which is open to anyone who wants to find out more about CAFOD's volunteer work in schools and parishes. The session will be held in the Mostyn Room next to St David's Cathedral in Cardiff on Monday, September 17th from 11am to 4pm and will be a great way to find out more about CAFOD's educational work, meet other volunteers, unpack resources and see first-hand what this vital volunteer role entails. It is an ideal opportunity for those who are interested in becoming a volunteer but want to find out more first. Please contact CAFOD at southwales@cafod.org.uk or 029 2034 4882 to find out more and book your place.

Baptism Courses – October and November—Dates are now available for the courses in October and November for those parents who plan to have their child baptised. October's course will take place in St Teilo's Hall on Thursdays, October 4th and 11th at 7pm. November's course will take place in St. Philip Evans Small Hall, behind the Church, on Saturdays, November 10th and 17th at 6.30pm.

Catholic Bible School Weekend – Our Lady's Parish, Hereford—The Catholic Bible school is running a weekend retreat in Our Lady's Parish in Hereford from Friday, October 5th to Sunday, October 7th. Parishioners from other parishes are very welcome to join us. Information on the weekend can be found at www.olqmhereford.org.uk. On Saturday, October 6th from 9am, there will be workshops entitled "Know your Bible ABC'S – Achieving Bible Confidence", "The Word for Children", aimed at helped parents and catechists to share the Bible with children and young people, and "Gospel Parables". There will also be a session on Lectio-Divina, the prayerful reading of scripture, and a presentation on the Parable of the Sower. There will be special prayer stations in the Church, adoration and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. All meals and refreshments will be provided. There will be special sessions for children while the adults are gathered together for their workshops. If you would like to come along, just ring Fr. Matthew on 01432 265177, or e-mail numbers to fr.matthew@live.co.uk – just so that the group can plan numbers for meals.

Dowry Tour – Our Lady of Walsingham—Since 1051, England has been known as Mary's Dowry. The title was used to mark the intense devotion to Our Lady, which was characteristic of England in the medieval period. While the title went into abeyance during the Reformation, it was a source of great hope for those who retained the Catholic Faith during this period of the Church's history. As Wales dedicated itself to Our Lady of the Taper at Cardigan, so England's great shrine to Our Lady was at the Holy House at Walsingham. In 2020, the Catholic Church in England will gather at Walsingham to rededicate England as Mary's Dowry. In advance of that occasion, a 'Dowry Tour' is taking place in which the statue of Our Lady of Walsingham will be visiting the Catholic cathedrals of England. While there will be no visits to Wales, our Archdiocese includes the English county of Hereford. Belmont Abbey, once the Cathedral of the Archdiocese, will be the nearest centre which the statue of Our Lady of Walsingham will visit during the 'Dowry Tour'. The visit of the statue of Our Lady of Walsingham to Belmont Abbey takes place from 6pm on Thursday, October 11th to midday on Saturday, October 13th. Rosary, Mass, time to visit the statue and talks on the Dowry of Mary will take place throughout the period and all are welcome to visit Belmont Abbey during this time.
