Weekend 3rd – 4th November 2018 The Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Mass: The Mass readings and prayers for the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time are on page 152 of the Mass Book.

Mass for the Travelling Community – This Afternoon

One of the four priests who act as chaplains to the Travelling Community in England and Wales will be saying Mass next Sunday at Our Lady of Lourdes at 5pm. Though the Mass is targeted at the large number of members of the Travelling Community here in Cardiff, it is, of course, open to all who wish to attend.

Purse

The purse that was lost at the 9am Mass last Sunday has been found and handed in to Canon Isaac. It appears to be intact. It may be collected from the sacristy after Mass.

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Stewart Slatford. Mr. Slatford's Funeral Service will take place on Wednesday, November 7th at 12.30pm, followed by interment at Thornhill.

Memorial Candle

The candle burning in front of the Book of Remembrance this week is for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the O'Shea Family. May they and all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Parish Requiem Mass

On Saturday, November 10th at 11am, we will have a Requiem Mass for all the departed whose funerals have been held in the parish during the last year. Everyone is invited to come along and remember the deceased of the parish.

Requiem Mass for all those who have died in War

At 11am on the eleventh day of the eleventh month, in 1918, World War One ended after four years and four months. On this day, Germany signed an armistice with Britain and France. Since 1919, this day has been marked as Remembrance Day, a day to remember and pray for the dead of the First World War and all those who have died in war since that time.

On Sunday, November 11th, 100 years after the end of the war, the parish 11am Mass will be a Requiem Mass to pray for all those who have died in war and to join in spirit with those who gather at the Cenotaph in Whitehall and at all the memorials across the country to pray for those who gave their lives to keep our country safe. Active and former military personnel are invited to wear their uniform if they so wish.

Blessing of deceased parishioners' graves

After the 11am Mass next Sunday, Canon Isaac will proceed to Pantmawr Cemetery to bless the graves of our deceased parishioners who are buried there and to pray for all the deceased members of our parish and our families.

November – The Month of the Holy Souls

During the month of November, we will pray for the Faithful Departed at Mass every day. We will remember especially those included on the Holy Souls' lists in both Churches. Envelopes are at the back of both Churches for your Holy Souls' lists.

Catholic Bible School – 10th November – St Philip Evans Church

Horrible Histories of the Old Testament - with all the violence and killing that happens in many of the Old Testament books, how does it tie in with Jesus's teaching to "Love your neighbour and pray for those who persecute you"? Matthew 5:44.

On Saturday, November 10th, Alan de Ste Croix will be exploring some of the tricky bits of the Old Testament. How do we make sense of this for modern times? The event takes place at St. Philip Evans Church, Llanedeyrn, Cardiff CF23 9UL from 10am to 3pm. The event is free and there is no need to book. If you are able to make a donation to help cover costs, it will be gratefully received. Tea, coffee and biscuits are provided but please bring your own packed lunch. For more information, please email catholicbibleschooluk@gmail.com.
