Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles (Solemnity)

OUR LADY of LOURDES
Gabalfa

Today's Mass: Mass readings and prayers for the Saturday evening Vigil Mass for Saints Peter and Paul are on page 177 of the Mass Book and for the Masses on the Sunday on page 180.

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul: Today, we celebrate the transferred solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul. In doing so, we honour together in martyrdom these two great saints, Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles and Peter, Supreme Pontiff and first Bishop of Rome. We recognise the similarity of the hearts of these saints overflowing with love for mankind, the same burning zeal for the good of all men, the same joy in suffering for Christ.

Today's feast also celebrates our link through these great saints, who died in Rome, with our Holy Father Pope Francis and the wider Catholic Church in communion with the Bishop of Rome.

Rest In Peace: Please remember in your prayers Rosie Hughes, Catherine Wighans & Colin Thomas who have died recently.

Refreshments after Mass: Refreshments will be served in the Hall after the 11 o'clock Mass today. All are welcome to come along for a cuppa and a chat.

Yr Offeren yn Gymraeg: Today we welcome the Welsh language community who will be celebrating Mass in Welsh at 4.30pm. Croeso!

Cardiff Young Catholics: The monthly meeting for Young Catholics (18-40) takes place this evening at 7.30pm at the Duke of Wellington pub in the Hayes, Cardiff. Fr. Nick Williams co-ordinates the group and will welcome all who come along.

Welcome to Fr. John Murphy SP: We are pleased to welcome Fr. Murphy back to the parish who will be here on supply for the month of July while Canon Isaac takes his summer holiday.

Laurence was extremely pleased to see the large number of people who were in attendance on the occasion of his ordination. We wish Fr. Laurence all the best as he begins his ministry in the Archdiocese as an assistant priest in the All Saints group of Churches in Newport – Canon Isaac

The Precious Blood

July is traditionally the month in which we honour the Precious Blood of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. In this month we are reminded that Jesus is wholly and truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Most Precious Blood in the Chalice. One of the fruits of the Second Vatican Council has been the gift of receiving, in a fuller sign, the Precious Blood of the Lord. While we receive the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus when we receive communion under only one kind, the sign is made clearer when we receive under both kinds. As Catholics, we need to remember that Jesus is truly present in the Chalice and, as such, we need to treat the Precious Blood in the Chalice with the same respect and reverence as we do the Eucharist in the tabernacle.

The image of the Precious Blood is a rich one in Church tradition. As St. Peter says in his first letter: “Remember, the ransom, that was paid to free you from the useless way of life your ancestors handed down, was not paid in anything corruptible, neither in silver nor gold, but in the precious blood of a lamb without spot or stain, namely Christ.” (Peter 1:17-21). The Church reminds us that Jesus was entirely exsanguinated during His torture, crucifixion, and death, drinking the chalice of suffering “to the dregs” by shedding every last drop of His inestimably treasured blood. One drop of his blood, it has been said, would have been enough to redeem the world, but Our loving Saviour spared nothing in His suffering of the cruellest torments imaginable to show us that “God so loved the world’.

A famous Benedictine author, Dom Prosper Gueranger, says:

“The Blood of the Man-God, being the pledge of peace between Heaven and earth, the object of profoundest worship, the centre of the whole liturgy and our assured protection against all the evils of this present life, deposits, even now, in the souls and bodies of those whom it has ransomed, the germ of eternal happiness; the Church, therefore, in her Collect, begs of the Father, Who has given us His Only-begotten Son, that this Divine germ may not remain sterile within us, but may come to full development in Heaven.”

During this month of the Precious Blood, may we remember to drink deeply of the loving gift of Jesus as we welcome Him into our hearts? Perhaps we could pray the Litany of the Precious Blood - <https://www.ewtn.com/Devotionals/Litanies/blood.htm> - each day to remind us of the effect of the Precious Blood on our lives.

If you read, are a Eucharistic Minister, Welcomer or are involved in the offertory procession at the 11am Mass, or read or are a Eucharistic Minister at weekday Mass, please note Leigh's e-mail address so that you can let him know if you are not available. Please note that the rotas are produced at the end of one month for the following month, so you need to give Leigh notice on or around the 20th of the previous month if you are unavailable.
