Prayers, Litany and Holy Mass in Honour of God the Father of All Mankind on Sunday, August 4th at 6pm in Nazareth House

The Message of God the Father to Sr. Eugenia in 1932 is the only private revelation, the first time in the history of the Church, made personally by God the Father. It is recognised as authentic by the Church following ten years of the most rigorous examination conducted and approved by the Vatican.

God the Father of Mankind seeks to reveal a unique Message to His children; "The Father speaks to His children" was entrusted to Mother Eugenia, a nun belonging to the Congregation of Our Lady of the Apostles. The request for a novena leading up to the first Sunday of August and a special Mass on that day are a part of that devotion. Materials will be available for those new to the devotions. For more information please contact Philip Illsley on 01443 203305 or visit

Open Morning at Nazareth House

Since the 1870s, Nazareth House has been at the heart of caring for those in need in Cardiff but have you wondered what our role is, in the Twenty First Century? We have cared for the elderly and this is now our primary role within the local community. A series of Open Mornings will be held over the coming months, where the Sisters and members of staff will be able to discuss the services which we now offer. Please join us following the 10.00am Mass for tea, coffee and biscuits, on Wednesday, August 7th 2019. You are very welcome to attend! – The Sisters

Baptism Courses

The next Baptism Course takes place at Christ the King Church on the Tuesdays, August 20th and 27th at 7.30pm. Anyone wishing to attend, should e-mail Brigid Lee for details of the venue.

St Alban's, Splott

At the request of Archbishop George, the Rosminian Provincial and Council have agreed to transfer the pastoral care of St. Alban's Parish, Splott, to the community of the Cardiff Oratory in Formation, commonly known as the Oratorians. The community will move from the current university chaplaincy residence and assume the pastoral care of the parish during August. As we look forward to the canonisation of Blessed John Henry Newman, who was nourished by the spirituality of the Oratory, we pray that his legacy will also be the foundation of the work of his brethren at St. Alban's parish.

FOR YOU TOO

To be holy does not require being a bishop, a priest or a religious. We are frequently tempted to think that holiness is only for those who can withdraw from ordinary affairs to spend much time in prayer. That is not the case. We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves. Are you called to the consecrated life? Be holy by living out your commitment with joy. Are you married? Be holy by loving and caring for your husband or wife, as Christ does for the Church. Do you work for a living? Be holy by labouring with integrity and skill in the service of your brothers and sisters. Are you a parent or grandparent? Be holy by patiently teaching the little ones how to follow Jesus. Are you in a position of authority? Be holy by working for the common good and renouncing personal gain. Let the grace of your baptism bear fruit in a path of holiness. Let everything be open to God; turn to him in every situation. Do not be dismayed, for the power of the Holy Spirit enables you to do this, and holiness, in the end, is the fruit of the Holy Spirit in your life. (cf. Gal 5:22-23). When you feel the temptation to dwell on your own weakness, raise your eyes to Christ crucified and say: "Lord, I am a poor sinner, but you can work the miracle of making me a little bit better". In the Church, holy yet made up of sinners, you will find everything you need to grow towards holiness. The Lord has bestowed on the Church the gifts of scripture, the sacraments, holy places, living communities, the witness of the saints and a multifaceted beauty that proceeds from God's love, "like a bride bedecked with jewels" (Is 61:10).

This holiness to which the Lord calls you will grow through small gestures. Here is an example: a woman goes shopping, she meets a neighbour and they begin to speak, and the gossip starts. But she says in her heart: "No, I will not speak badly of anyone". This is a step forward in holiness. Later, at home, one of her children wants to talk to her about his hopes and dreams, and even though she is tired, she sits down and listens with patience and love. That is another sacrifice that brings holiness. Later she experiences some anxiety, but recalling the love of the Virgin Mary, she takes her rosary and prays with faith. Yet another path of holiness. Later still, she goes out onto the street, encounters a poor person and stops to say a kind word to him. One more step. At times, life presents great challenges. Through them, the Lord calls us anew to a conversion that can make his grace more evident in our lives, "in order that we may share his holiness" (Heb.12: 10). At other times, we need only find a more perfect way of doing what we are already doing: "There are inspirations that tend solely to perfect in an extraordinary way the ordinary things we do in life". (To be continued)
